

PRESBYTERY OF ST.
ANDREW

In the event of an emergency requiring medical treatment, I give my permission for the retreat leaders or camp staff to obtain the services of a licensed physician. I understand that the retreat leadership will make every effort to notify me immediately concerning any such emergency. I understand that this retreat program includes strenuous active games, indoor and outdoor activities, including Challenge Course, which involve some risks. I hereby grant permission for my child or, for adults, myself, to fully participate in retreat activities.

at once they left their nets and followed him.
Matthew 4:19-20*

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Who are the leaders in your life...parents, teachers, youth directors, friends? What does it mean for Jesus Christ to be the leader of your life? What sacrifices does that involve and how do you stay on the right track? These are just some of the questions we'll reflect upon during our time together at the winter retreats. Join us for a fun-filled weekend with games, energizers, high/low challenges, Bible study and worship....make new friends, participate in a service project, share your talent at the talent show, laugh and grow in your faith all at the same time. We hope to see you at Camp Hopewell for the 2012 PYC Winter Retreats!

Sr. High Keynote Speakers are Sydne and Travis Allen, Co-Associate Pastors at First Presbyterian Church, Greenwood, MS.

Music Leaders are Martin Carver, Bob Henson and Joseph Kelly .
